VIGOUR Coordinating Center Services

- Clinical and statistical project design
- Clinical events adjudication
- Clinical Helpline
- Clinical supplies packaging and distribution
- Project management
- Site recruitment, management, and monitoring
- Patient randomization (IVRS)
- Data management
- Data analysis Results presentations and publications
- ECG, Ischemia Monitoring, and angiography core labs

Advantages

- Proven track record in cardiovascular research
- Integration of scientific leadership with service-oriented operations
- Active involvement with regulatory authorities in their environment
- In touch with day-to-day health and patient care issues
- Access to diverse populations worldwide
- Long-term experience managing databases across institutions, geography, and time
- Common regulatory-compliant database system
- Sophisticated data analysis and modeling expertise

Features

- Academically based partnership for sharing information, resources, and responsibility
- Industry collaboration in designing scientifically important, clinical practice-friendly protocols
- International cardiovascular thought leadership with proven regulatory insight
- Clinician-driven project leadership
- Unparalleled global network of investigators
- Promotion of peer-reviewed publications
- Commitment to improving the practice of cardiovascular medicine and patient outcomes
- Education and training of physicians in clinical research methods and operations
- Education of statisticians, nurses, and all levels of healthcare research professionals